The Jones Family, 14 Darte Avenue. Maggie (1855-1930) and Samuel Sheldon Jones (1850-1928) are shown here with their two children, Eleanor (far left) and James Russell (far right), by the back porch. Samuel Jones, was the thirteenth of 14 children born to Samuel Jones and Eleanor Pritchard, both of whom were Welsh. Samuel Sheldon Jones was very active in civic and community affairs. He represented the eighth district of Luzerne County in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and served as alderman from Carbondale's second ward for 10 years. He helped to organize the Carbondale Emergency Hospital and the Carbondale Board of Health. He was the editor of the Carbondale Evening Leader from 1887-1893.

A Photographic Record of Carbondale, Pennsylvania
The Pioneer City, Volume I, 2004

p. 30

11706.7